Dear St. Mary's School Community,

Allow me this opportunity to congratulate all of you on the wonderful work you are doing in educating the students of St. Mary's. We have been blessed to have a number of your students attend Mercy High School over the years, and we have always found your graduates to be well-prepared academically. They have stepped into the high school curriculum without missing the beat. They obviously have been taught "how to study" as well as been instilled with a desire to learn for learning sake rather than just for a grade.

In addition, many of your students have gone on to hold a variety of leadership positions in high school which also indicates their high level of preparedness for leadership positions fostered in the elementary setting.

Most importantly, it is clear that graduates of St. Mary's have a wonderful sense of spirituality and a willingness to reach out to others. While this is a more intangible quality to "measure," it is evident that these students are well-grounded in their faith and their baptismal call. They are truly becoming wonderful women of "mercy."

It is a pleasure to work with students and families from St. Mary's. May God continue to bless all of you and the wonderful work you do in the "vineyard" day in and day out!

Sincerely,
